LOOKING AHEAD TO 2026

The future of the BR-Verse continues to take shape. The Alpha #5 is officially 50% complete, marking a major milestone in the next chapter of Jason Perez's journey.

ALPHA V. OMEGA: PART TWO pushes the series deeper into the heart of the Reign of the Superhumans era.

When Omega unleashes chaos across New York City, the original four heroes reunite alongside Red and the Legends Task Force for a last-chance operation to stop the creature once and for all. But even victory carries a warning—far beyond the city, a new storm is rising, one that threatens to pull the entire BR-Verse into war.

More announcements, previews, and surprises lie ahead. 2026 is only the beginning.
